NOW, WHO'S LYING?

A lost dog strays into a jungle. A lion sees the dog from a distance and cautiously thinks, "Hmm, this guy looks edible. Never seen his kind before."

The lion starts rushing toward the dog menacingly. The dog notices and begins to panic, but just as he's about to run, he spots some bones nearby. Thinking quickly, the dog loudly exclaims, "Mmm... that was some good lion meat!"

Hearing this, the lion abruptly stops in his tracks and thinks, "Whoa! This guy seems tougher than he looks. I better leave while I still can." The lion retreats cautiously.

Up in the treetops, a monkey witnesses the entire scene. Realizing he could gain favor with the lion, the monkey decides to spill the truth. He swings down and tells the lion what really happened.

Furious, the lion growls, "Get on my back! We'll deal with him together!"

The lion and monkey rush back toward the dog. Spotting them, the dog panics again but quickly comes up with another idea. He shouts loudly, "Where is that monkey? I told him to bring me another lion an hour ago!"

Moments in time

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

* On March 31, 1492, King Ferdinand II of Aragon and Queen Isabella I of Castile issued the Alhambra Decree, which mandated that all Jews be expelled from the country by the end of July. The church had already forced much of Spain's Jewish population to convert, and modern historians estimate that around 40,000 Jews emigrated.

* On April 1, 1963, ABC aired the first episode of "General Hospital," which became the longest-running serial program produced in Hollywood. On the same day, rival network NBC premiered its own medical-themed soap opera, "The Doctors." Both networks aimed to capitalize on the popularity of shows such as "Dr. Kildare" and "Ben Casey."

* On April 5, 1984, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar scored the 31,420th point of his career, breaking Wilt Chamberlain's NBA all-time scoring record. Abdul-Jabbar's record would remain intact for almost four decades.

"WHOEVER IS GENEROUS TO THE POOR LENDS TO THE LORD, AND HE WILL REPAY HIM FOR HIS DEED" - PROVERBS 19:17

* On April 2, 1992, mob boss John Gotti, aka the "Teflon Don" due to his notable ability to avoid conviction, was found guilty on 13 counts, including murder and racketeering, and sentenced to life in prison. A decade later, he died of throat cancer at age 61.

* On April 3, 1948, "The Louisiana Hayride," a country radio program broadcast out of Shreveport, Louisiana, debuted. It launched the careers of several country music giants, and also that of a certain teenage, honey-voiced aspirant by the name of Elvis Presley.

* On April 4, 1975, Operation Babylift, an American airlift to the U.S. and other Western nations of Vietnamese children deemed war orphans, had a disastrous start when an Air Force cargo jet crashed shortly after takeoff in Saigon, killing more than 135 passengers.

* On April 6, 1909, American explorer Robert Peary believed he had fulfilled a long-cherished dream when he, his assistant Matthew Henson and four Inuits reached what they determined to be the North Pole. Decades after Peary's death, however, navigational errors were discovered in his travel log, in all probability placing his expedition several miles short of its goal.

Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie
Winbourne

- * A rainbow on Venus is called a "glory."
- * LEGO bricks withstand compression better than concrete! An ordinary plastic LEGO brick can support the weight of 375,000 other bricks before it fails, which would theoretically allow you to build a tower nearing 3.5 km in height, but scaling that up to house-size bricks would prove too cost prohibitive.
- * Giraffes are 30 times more likely to get hit by lightning than people are.
- * Your brain is constantly eating itself, in a process called phagocytosis, where cells envelop and consume smaller cells or molecules to remove them from the system. Luckily, phagocytosis isn't painful or harmful, but helps preserve gray matter.
- * Identical twins don't have the same fingerprints.
- * The sun makes a sound in the form of pressure waves, but it's far beyond the range of human hearing.
- * A comet smells like rotten eggs, urine, burning matches and almonds.
- * One in 18 people have a third nipple. Known as polythelia, it's caused by a mutation in inactive genes.
- * Starfish don't have bodies. Along with other echinoderms such as sea urchins and sand dollars, their entire "bodies" are technically classed as heads.
- * There are roughly three ginger male cats to one ginger female. The ginger gene is found on the X chromosome, meaning female cats would require two copies of the gene to become ginger while males need just one.
- * Martial artists who smile before the start of a match are more likely to lose.
- * At a temperature of 54,000 F, a lightning bolt is five times hotter than the surface of the sun.
- * In the U.S., murder rates reportedly rise by 2.7% over the summer.
